

Before all the yada-yada, let's be serious for one minute. We do not sell this program to anyone, it's free. Therefore we will not take any responsibility for any damage you may wish to ascribe to using the program (not that we think that the program could possibly do any harm, but who knows...). On the other hand, if the program helps you, we do expect you to cite us properly, for instance: S. Hershkovitz, S. Baltianski, and Y. Tsur, Solid State Ionics 188 (1), 104-109 (2011); A. Oz, et al., J. Power Sources 355, 74-82 (2017), and many more, according to the application. The relevant papers' abstracts as well as the latest version of the program can be found in our website: <https://electroceramics.net.technion.ac.il/isgp/>.

Acceptance of Terms

Welcome to the Impedance Spectroscopy Genetic Programming software ("ISGP" or "software") created by The Electroceramics and Nanotechnology Laboratory, initially in cooperation with The Process System Engineering Group, Department of Chemical Engineering, Technion – Israel Institute of Technology.

By using ISGP, you indicate your unconditional acceptance of the following Terms of Service. Please read them carefully.

Terms of Service

The ISGP is an academic free software (freeware) subject to these Terms of Service. Some features of this software require an active Internet connection, necessary to access important documentation. We reserve the right to make changes to document names and content, descriptions or specifications of products or services, or other information without obligation to issue any notice of such changes. The website and any online content may periodically become unavailable due to maintenance or malfunction of computer equipment or other reasons.

You may view, download, and print Content that is available on this software and/or website, subject to the following conditions:

- a. The Content may be used solely for internal informational purposes. No part of this software and/or website or its Content may be reproduced or transmitted in any form, by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying and recording, for any other purpose. You may, however, use the option to make a movie of the program's progress.
- b. The Content may not be modified (well, if you have a good idea please let us know).
- c. Copyright and other proprietary notices may not be removed.
- d. You have no license or right to use the Content displayed on this software and/or website for other purposes than to analyze your data, except with our prior written permission.

Limitation of Liability

IN NO EVENT SHALL WE BE LIABLE TO ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF PROFITS, LOSS OF DATA, LOSS OF USE, OR LOSS OF FUNCTION TO ONE'S COMPUTER) ARISING OUT OF THE USE, INABILITY TO USE, OR MISUSE OF THE SOFTWARE OR WEBSITE OR ANY INFORMATION CONTAINED THEREON.
